13.2) Each party will ensure appropriate protection of Intellectual Property Rights generated from cooperation pursuant to MOU, consistent with their respective laws, rules and regulations and international agreements to which both parties are committed. In case research is carried out solely and separately by the Party or the research results are obtained through the sole and separate effort of the Party, the party concerned alone will apply for grant of IPR and once granted, the IPR will be solely owned by the concerned party. In case of research results obtained through joint activities, the grant of intellectual property rights will be sought by both the parties jointly and once granted these rights will jointly owned by the parties.

13.3) The Parties shall not assign any rights and obligations arising out of the IPR (having joint application) generated through inventions/activities carried out under the MOU to any third Party without consent of the other party.

13.4) Any publication, document and/or paper arising out of joint work conducted by the participants pursuant to this MOU will be jointly owned by all the parties. The use of the name, logo and/or official emblem of the participants on any publication, document and/or paper will require prior permission of both the parties. It may however be ensured that the official emblem and logo is not misused.

13.5) All information and documents to be exchanged pursuant to the MOU will be kept confidential by the parties and will be used subject to such terms as each party may specify. The parties will not use the information for purposes other than that specified without the prior written consent of the other party.

13.6) All confidential information shall remain the exclusive property of the disclosing party. The parties agree that this agreement and the disclosure of the confidential information do not grant or imply any license, interest or right to the recipient in respect to any intellectual property right of the other party.

14. Force Majeure

14.1) "Force Majeure Event" means any unforeseeable acts of God or nature, actions of any governmental authority, terrorism, war, sabotage, explosion, epidemic or any other such catastrophe beyond the control of the affected Party which prevents its performance of any material obligation under this Agreement.

14.2) If the performance of the Agreement by either Party is delayed, hindered or prevented or is otherwise frustrated by reason of a Force Majeure Event, then the Party so affected shall promptly notify the other Party in writing specifying the nature of the Force Majeure and of the anticipated delay in the performance of the Agreement. From the date of such notification, ... shall in its sole discretion, either terminate the Agreement forthwith or suspend the performance of the Agreement for a period not exceeding 6 (six) months.

14.3) If at the expiry of such period of suspension, the reasons for the suspension still remain, First Party and the Second Party shall treat the Agreement as terminated.

15. Representations, Warranties and Authority:

- The parties warrant that this MOU is validly formed according to the laws of India, and that they have full authority to enter into this MOU.*
- The parties also warrant that all the required essential sanctions to enter into this MOU were obtained.*

16. Notice:
